

PINE BATHING SALT, 500 g

Pine bathing salt is suitable for all lovers of more intense smells. The bathing salt with a smell of pine trees is also quite therapeutic. For the moments when we want to experience the magical summer scent in our home bathroom, as if we were lying under pine trees with endless blue sea in front of us. Summer fairy tale! And even more! Pine bathing salt is great to use before menstruation or when we overdo it with exercise and our limbs feel heavy and swollen. The bathing salt provides a natural massage, so after using it, our feet are light and rested, as well as our thoughts and breathing. After a pine bath, we are like reborn again!
